How We Know That Christ Rose From the Dead

By REV. JAMES M. GRAY, D. D., Dean of Miami Institute, of Miami

TEXT—Now if Christ be preaching that he rose from the dead, how may you think of the dead?—1 Cor. 15:12.

At this season of the year our thoughts are turned more than usual to the resurrection of Jesus Christ. This is the keystone of the arch of Christianity and the basis of our own hope of life beyond the grave. Therefore it is of the first importance to us that we be sure about it. We ought to have a firm foundation for our faith, for which reason we ask, and will try to answer, the question, How do we know that Jesus Christ arose from the dead?

Antiquarians say that the strongest evidence of an event of early date is a historical monument erected to establish it. Take our Fourth of July. What an ever-recurring proof it is of the Declaration of Independence and forth by our political faith there as the Magna Charta of our nation! We trace the history of this day from decade to decade until we reach the point when it first came to be. What then originated it, or what explanation shall be given for its observance at that time? There must be some cause adequate for such an effect, and we find it in that action of the continental congress.

Just so we have the first day of the week which we keep as one of trust and worship. All the people do not keep this day, but many do, who are called Christians. They are found in all nations and among all tongues. Moreover they have kept this day for nearly 2,000 years, and yet there was a time when it began to be. What originated it, what explains its coming into being? That must be a cause adequate for such an effect, and it is found in the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead on that day. This proof is all the stronger when we recall that the first Christians were Jews, and that until that time they had always kept the seventh day of the week, and not the first. One who has been a revolutionary event in order to produce a change like this.

The Testimony of Eye-Witnesses. But going further back, what ground had our Christian fathers for believing that Jesus Christ arose from the dead on that day? To mention only a single fact, they had the testimony of 514 eye-witnesses, mentioned by Paul to I. Corinthians. 15:6. One of these seems might be mistaken, or two or three might be mistaken, but 514 hardly. And not when you remember that 500 of them saw him on the same day, and furthermore the post-resurrection appearances of Jesus Christ were many, for he remained upon the earth for six weeks. And not only were they many, but very intimate, for he was with his disciples, and he ate and drank with them. And he afforded them the evidence not only of the senses of sight and sound, but of touch, too. Thomas was directed to thrust his hand into the wound in his side of Jesus, and told to "be not faithless, but believing." The man who rejects such testimony is incapable of accepting any other testimony to anything or anybody.

Personal Experience. And yet the man who truly believes on the Lord Jesus Christ, has evidence of more intimate and satisfactory kind than either of these named. He has the witness in himself, for he himself is risen from the dead, not yet physically, but in a spiritual sense. He has risen from the death of sin into the life of righteousness. He knows this to be a fact, and it is great a man who believes that the physical resurrection to follow is altogether removed from the region of uncertainty or doubt.

But how did this resurrection take place in his case? Simply by believing the testimony of God concerning the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. This is a great mystery, but the moment a man believes what God has said about his son who died for our sins and rose again for our justification, that moment he is born again, to a new life in a new world, with a new hope in his heart. You do not need to offer him further proof that Jesus Christ rose from the dead, he can see with him all the proof he requires in his own soul.

Once I was blind, but now I can see. The light of the world is Jesus.

No power can effect this change in a man but God; and if God effect it, a man believes, that is all the testimony he needs that his sin is dead and rose again. Why not try it for yourself? It costs nothing but the surrender of your will to God, but it is worth more than everything else you have in this world.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR JUNE 13

BLESSEDNESS OF FORGIVENESS.

LESSON TEXT—Psalm 51. GOLDEN TEXT—He is whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered—Psalm 51.

This psalm is believed to have grown out of David's experience with Nathan (see 2 Sam. 12:1-13). It is the second of the seven so-called "penitential psalms" (4, 32, 38, 51, 102, 137, 143). While it is said, it is at the same time one of the most joyful of all psalms. It is the record of bitter sorrow and also of heartfelt praise, and is as vital in its message today as the day it was given to the world.

I. The State or Condition of Happiness. (1) What is happiness? v. 1, 2. The blessed or happy man is one whose sin is covered. God only can forgive sin and he pleads as before his agency, viz. the shed blood. David as king enjoyed the pleasures of life, but he also knew the result of sin and he was guilty. The joy of forgiveness is offered to all who accept God's gift of justification (Acts 13:38). The psalmist seems to multiply the words "transgression" means rebellion; "sin" to mean the heart; "iniquity" to mean the deed. When men try to cover sin they are exposing it to the heavenly Father (Rom. 2:13), but God literally takes away when he forgives and "covers" sin (John 1:29; Ps. 103:12; 85:3). Not only does God cover sin, but he also covers the heart. (2) Who is unhappy? v. 3, 4. Contrasted with the state or condition of happiness granted to the forgiven sinner is presented that of those who are unhappy. David kept silence without any having a raging tempest within—like silent, bones "roaring." During the days of David's sinfulness following his sin and he was guilty of increased acts of sin and cruelty (2 Sam. 12:13). The origin of the word "sin" is not known, it probably indicated a musical instrument and in the psalm most appropriately and dramatically appears. (3) How may we be happy? v. 5, 6. All sin is uncovered to God. His all-seeing eye can see the heart's fullness of endeavors to hide his transgressions. The first step to forgiveness and to happiness is confession of sin and the confession of sin is the first condition of forgiveness. "I acknowledged my sin." Such confession is full and sincere. Nothing is held back nor has it any element of hypocrisy, and it always secures results (1 John 1:9; Luke 16:27).

The golden man, the man who is the recipient of God's grace thus bestowed, prays in a time "when thou mayest be found" (Ps. 138:8). He is not of finding out (v. 6, R. V.). The prophet tells us that there is a time when we may not find God (Isa. 58:3). But when we find him he may be found (Isa. 65:1).

II. How to Continue in the State of Being Happy. (1) Our security (v. 7). When men forgive do not "cover" sin. What God hides he forgives (Isa. 38:17; Micah 7:18). Our security, our "hiding place" is Jehovah. Our preserver is Jehovah (Ps. 91:1; Isa. 45:1). Jehovah preserves from trouble those who have forgiven (Ps. 64:19). Such men have a security, a "peace" even in the "time of God's wrath" (Isa. 54:17; Rom. 8:1). (2) Our instructor (v. 8, 9). (3) Our instructor (v. 8, 9). (4) Our instructor (v. 8, 9). (5) Our instructor (v. 8, 9). (6) Our instructor (v. 8, 9). (7) Our instructor (v. 8, 9). (8) Our instructor (v. 8, 9). (9) Our instructor (v. 8, 9). (10) Our instructor (v. 8, 9). Some Hints To Moving Picture Patrons

As Told by W. H. King, Proprietor of The Garden Airdome, 5100 Market Street

First, patronize those places that give you the best entertainment. When you don't feel like going to Forest Park Highlands, come to the Garden Airdome where you are always welcome. (Blood is thicker than water.)

How many white odors on Market St. employ colored help?—All of our employees are colored.

We spent Eight Hundred Dollars in improvements, and every dollar was paid to colored workmen. How many white odors on Market St. have done as much for the race?

If you think you are doing right by spending all of your nickles in white odors let your daughter apply for a position as Cashier at one of them; and position let us know if she gets it.

We are giving our patrons the best moving pictures that money can buy, even though we are forced to send to Chicago to get 'em because the white odors proprietors on Market St. have bought up all of the local service in an effort to keep us from doing business among our own people.

For any further information along this line see Mr. King, 2120 Market St., at the Garden Airdome.—Adv.

OMAHA TEAM WILL PLAY GIANTS SUNDAY, MONDAY AND TUESDAY

Series Will Be Held One for Miller Club. Record Crowd Seen Giants Truena Memphis

St. Louis fans will get a run of excitement for their money next Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday if all the dope on the Omaha "Wonders" is true. This club, which comes out of the west, is rated one of the best in the country. Mills has three good twirlers now in Williams, Smith and Miller. His team should win at least two of the games.

An overflow crowd, the largest of the season, saw the Giants trounce the Memphis boys by a score of 21 to 1 Sunday. The game was disappointing to the big crowd, especially the several hundred Memphis roots. Monday, because a small crowd, the Memphis team slipped up on the giants and won 9 to 4. The reversal of form may have been due to a good rest and recovery from stage

BOOKER WASHINGTON THEATRE OFFERS A REAL ALL-STAR SHOW

This week's show at the Booker Washington is the best combination of real talent that has been offered in a long time.

Eddie Gray's sweet tenor voice is heard to advantage in a repertoire of his own compositions. The list consists of "Theme of Love," "Hard to Love," "Some One Dearly," "Eighteen Years Old," and "Miss You Dearly." All are beautiful sentimental with sweet melodies. The Tom Toms, Tom Lemoine and Tom Cross, keep the audience laughing with their conglomeration of original dialogue and songs. Lemoine provides in the piano in the song numbers. He also plays what he calls a "Human Xylophone," which is only an ordinary spoon spoon; whistles and plays "The Mocking Bird" and supports Mr. Cross in the songs "No, You Didn't," "Yes, I Did," "The Old Time Melodies," and "Nothing But Love, Sweet Love." These are their own compositions. The act goes big all through.

MISS IRENE DAY

Day and Howard, with a humorous line of new talk and a classy combination of vocal and instrumental selections, are a delightful pair. Miss Howard's deep contralto voice is excellent in rendering "Way Down South." George Day, as a straight comedian, is in a class by himself. His sweet tenor voice screams him well in singing, "Moon Machine" and again when he sings the "Rosary," accompanied by Miss Day on the cornet. Miss Day is undoubtedly the greatest lady cornet soloist on the stage.

The Russell, Joe and Mandy, in "The Soldier and the Maid" close the show. Mr. Russell's soldier stunts keep the house in an uproar. The lady is excellent, both as a singer and dancer. Their jokes are clean and comical and make a tremendous hit. Their dance finale is new, full of action and takes the house by storm.

The Rajahs, J. A. Downing and Vena Martin, are going big on while time in the cast, closing the show in first class houses. They are booked up to the latter part of July, when they are expected home for a read. They send regards to their many friends.

DEDICATED TO MRS. POPE TURNED MALONE

THE "PORO" HAIR DRESSING

Some folks write testimonials. Having no regard to fact. While some exaggerate it. Others' words are not exact.

But I find that their statements, others write just to deceive. By a thousand varied arguments. So their story none believe.

But I shall be my object. Just to state it as it is. And let the world know truly. All about the "Poro" hair. It does not mean to tell it all. (For I tell it all I know, but every word I tell you, you will truly find it so.)

Indeed, I've taken washing, air, and brushing, to be sure. I have served as cook and housemaid. And have done some nursing, too. The reason why I did it. Was because I didn't know The highest possibility. For service of "Poro."

I found out what the work would be. I paid the stipulated price. With not a moment's delay. And now today, I'm glad to say. With all my soul and main. "I count the cost as nothing lost. But everything to gain."

I've done five hundred heads or more since first I did begin. There's a constant rapping at my door. Or people come in. To have me wash and dress their hair. Because these ladies know. (Of all the rest), I use the best. The world's far-famed "Poro."

I've had some ladies come to me. With hair so very thin. I've been a standing aid in their. And arguing with the wife. But after two or three months' time. I've said to let you know. They all join in the chorus. Singing praises to "Poro."

I can call them by the hundreds. I can name them by the score. Everyone of whom are pleased. With using "Poro." It makes their hair so glossy. It makes the crooked straight. It makes the hair all mouth. And puts it up to date.

Your husband will not know you. And neither will your beauty. You'll take your own by surprise. By using "Poro-Turned Poro." No wonder your hair has improved. Or would you make it grow. There's no remedy on earth. Like "Poro-Turned Poro."

THE VEILED PROPHET

STANLEY DOUGLAS VAIL, STANDING Challenge $1,000 for His Equal. CONCERNING BUSINESS AFFAIRS.

His great dates, notes and figures, reliable and important advice, and information on all matters of interest in business transactions. Law suits, contested wills, life insurance, damage suits, divorces, debts, mortgages, claims, collections, speculations, advances, stocks and all financial difficulties. Truly predicts the success or failure of new inventions, patents, pending patent claims, etc.; tells what you should do to secure property, or if you intend to make any changes in your business, how or all property, or, in fact, take any important step. His advice may be the means of saving you thousands of dollars and a great deal of trouble.

LOVE, COURTSHIP AND MARRIAGE. If affairs of the heart or emotions of love interest you, he gives the exact and truthful revelations of all love affairs, settles lovers quarrels, enables you to win the esteem and affection of anyone you desire, only he reveals the real marriage; tells if the one you love is true; also date of marriage; restores lost affection, peace and confidence. If lovers and discordant families: gives you the full secret how to control passions and charm the one you love; also shows you how to make a person at a distance think of you. Life Attendant.

NOTE—These calling for pastime, card and business parties are only waiting time calling on Prof. Gladstone. Strongly fascinating are the words that come from the cultivated lips of this most interesting man whose journey of life has already taken him through the most renowned psychic schools of Egypt, India and Europe. It seems, indeed, as if his knowledge must come from that mysterious world of which we all would know, yet longing, cannot know. His home is away into the dim mysterious future—the most beautiful and dark shadow which separates the human body from the fitting soul—and that which is to be laid. The separated are brought to life.

GLADSTONE is not a clairvoyant from school, but because this has so decreed in his ancestors were powerful mediums and have for ages handed down their wonderful power of gift from generation to generation. So he has received the rich inheritance together with the combined knowledge and priceless experience of generations. He neither what your present trouble may be or what your past experience has been, you will move time and avoid disappointment by at once consulting Gladstone.

NOTE—Gladstone answers so little if you cannot call in person, do not write as his time is fully occupied with his personal callers.
